

Excerpt from Transcript of Testimony by Mr. McCone before
House Committee on Foreign Affairs - 19 February 1963

Mrs. Bolton. ... Now we are being flooded by 15 million times more, if I can exaggerate, than is going on in Panama. It seems to me that our people have the right to do what they are doing with me -- why was that permitted all of a sudden -- why wasn't that stopped?

That perhaps, of course, isn't for you to answer.

Mr. McCone. This is out of my field of competence.

Mrs. Bolton. I would like very much to feel that you would pass it along because it is a very grave thing.

Mr. McCone. I will be very happy to do so.
